Dormy House

Dormy House really is the perfect exclusive use wedding venue. What makes us so different to all of the other Cotswold venues? Well we have the lovely postcard location, the unique 17th century farmhouse which oozes character and 39 individually designed bedrooms and suites. But it really is the soul, heart and intimacy that really make us unique.

We have over 40 years of experience under our belt and we know how important it is to make your big day run as smoothly as possible. Our team are extremely attentive, knowledgeable and most importantly of all, friendly.

Our house is your home.

Ceremony

Walking down the aisle is one of the biggest and most important moments of your big day.

The Back Garden is a lovely light-filled room that really sets the scene. Having Dormy House exclusively means that you can plan your perfect day with as much of our help as you need.

Wedding Breakfast

The first meal as a married couple. You can relax, sort of, speeches are almost over and the party will soon begin.

You can enjoy a lovely 3 course wedding breakfast in The Back Garden carefully selected by you and lovingly prepared by Culinary Director Martin Burge and his team.

Reception & Party

Now you can relax. The embarrassing stories are over and you are surrounded by everyone who means the most to you in life. Let the party commence!

Exclusive use means just that. The hotel is yours to enjoy. Guests can mingle between the cosy lounges, the bar in The Shed and The Back Garden. The proper party with band or entertainment of choice is best suited in The Back Garden, plenty of room for dancing and throwing the bouquet!
